The selection process

The SCCG's selection process is based on merit principles and equal employment opportunity.

Addressing the selection criteria is an important element of your application. Do not simply state that "you meet the criteria" - list each criterion as a heading and under each heading clearly explain how you meet it, providing examples where possible to support your claim(s).

The selection panel

The selection panel is responsible for assessing the relative merit of your application by reviewing your resume and how well you meet the selection criteria. The SCCG Secretariat will shortlist applications identifying applicants for further assessment by determining who best meets the criteria. Applicants shortlisted for further assessment will be contacted and invited for an interview before the selection panel. An assessment is made of the relative suitability of applicants - assessing the relationship between an applicant's qualifications, skills, knowledge and attributes and those required for the position.

Referees

Ideally one of your referees will be your current supervisor or manager. We will not contact your referees without first discussing this with you. Applicants are strongly encouraged to make suitable arrangements with their nominated referees prior to the lodgement of their application.

Making an offer

The successful Applicant will be offered employment once reference checks have been undertaken and the results confirm that the Applicant can meet the requirements of the role.

Additional Information

If you have any queries, please contact Sarah Joyce, Executive Officer, on 02 9976 1502 or executiveofficer@sydneycoastalcouncils.com.au

The SCCG

The Sydney Coastal Councils Group (SCCG) is a voluntary Regional Organisation of Councils representing nine coastal councils (www.sydneycoastalcouncils.com.au). Established in 1989, it promotes cooperation and coordination between Member Councils with the mission to provide leadership through a coordinated approach to sustainable coastal management. The organisation's activities are conducted by the Secretariat which currently comprises the following key roles:

- Executive Officer (EO)
- Manager – Projects and Programs (MPP)
- Support Officer – Coast and Estuaries (SO p/t)

The EO administers the Group and its Committees and manages the finances of the Group. The EO reports directly to the Chairperson and the Group's Executive Committee.

The Group consists of four primary committees:

- The Executive Committee (Councillors)
- The Full Group Committee (Councillors and staff, inclusive of the Executive Committee)
- The Technical Committee (Technical Staff)
- The GM's Forum (GM's and Senior Staff)
